Children's Sermon and the Lord's Prayer Matthew Coleman
(using the word "sins" / "those who sin against us")

Anthem His Eye Is on the Sparrow arr. Mark Hayes
Words by Civilla D. Martin (1860-1948); Music by Charles H. Gabriel (1865-1932)

Why should I feel discouraged? Why should the shadows come? Why should my heart be lonely and long for heav'n and home when Jesus is my portion?
My constant Friend is He. His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.
His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

I sing because I'm happy. I sing because I'm free. For His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.

Whenever I am tempted, whenever clouds arise, when songs give place to sighing, when hope within me dies, I draw the closer to Him; from care
He sets me free. His eye is on the sparrow, and I know He watches me.
His eye is on the sparrow and I know He watches me.

Confession of Sin

God of mercy, we come seeking You this morning knowing that You are slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. We know that You have compassion for Your people and stand always ready to receive repentance and extend Your Grace. We confess our sin, acknowledging that we have not lived in the light of Your Law nor have we heeded the call of Your love. Forgive us Father, through the person of Jesus our Lord show us again Your way, Your truth, and Your life. Amen.
