Anthem

You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore

PESCADOR

Duet: Nate Bluhm and David Williams

(verses 1 & 4 sung in English; verses 2 & 3 & Chorus sung in Spanish)

1. You have come down to the lakeshore seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy, but only asking for me to follow. (Chorus)

(Chorus)

O Jesus, you have looked into my eyes; kindly smiling, you've called out my name. On the sand I have abandoned my small boat; now with you, I will seek other seas.

2. You know full well my possessions, neither treasure nor weapons for conquest, just these my fish nets and will for working. (Chorus)

3. You need my hands, my exhaustion, working love for the rest of the weary a love that's willing to go on loving. (Chorus)

4. You who have fished other waters; you, the longing of souls that are yearning; As loving Friend, you have come to call me. (Chorus)

Confession of Sin

God of Life, we confess that we have failed to live as those who are bound to live forever with You, because we have too often forgotten that we are bound to Christ who has been raised from the dead. We treat life like it is scarce and running out, instead of abundant and spilling into eternity. We fail to be generous with time and money, because we tend to think in terms of scarcity. We fail to live into hope, because we have a tendency to doubt. We fail to be bold, because we have a tendency to prefer the opinions of men to those of God. Forgive all these sins, and remind us again of our coming resurrection at the return of Christ- that we may live with courage and hope clearly sharing the message of Life with those yet to be gathered into Your fold. Amen.

And like a cedar spread abroad.
Those planted in the house of God
Shall flourish there before the Lord.

They shall be succulent and green;
That they may show how just is God,
My Rock, in whom no fault is seen..
