Infinite God, this morning we come, relying on Your grace, and confessing our sin. We admit that our ideas of You have been too small. In our service and prayers to You our minds have put limits on what we think You can know, and what You can do. As a result we have failed to live in this world fully convinced of Your ability to accomplish Your good will toward us. As we come again to Your Word, remind us of Your limitless power and boundless riches given to us in Christ Jesus, that trusting in Him we might know with greater confidence the forgiveness of our sins. We ask this in Jesus name, Amen.

(Tune at Hymn #31: I Sing the Almighty Power of God)

1. O praise the LORD! How good it is to sing him songs of praise!
For it is pleas-ant, meet, and right a song of thanks to raise.
The LORD builds up Jer-u-sa-lem; and he it is a-lone who reach-es out to Is-ra-el to bring the ex-iles home.
2. He heals the bro-ken-heart-ed ones and binds their wounds and pain.
He counts the stars by num-ber, and he calls them each by name.
Our LORD is great and full of pow'r, his wis-dom is pro-found.
The LORD lifts up the meek in heart, the wick-ed he casts down.
