Dear friends,

Dorenda and I thank God for His faithfulness and your generous partnership. We want to share highlights of God's work and some future opportunities.

This year, God helped Dorenda and me initiate spiritual conversations with 70 new professors, and 1 found assurance of her salvation through the gospel. God raised up Christian professors for 2 women's Bible studies and 1 of those professors is leading a ministry to nursing students. God empowered professors to share Jesus on 40 episodes of the Meet the Prof podcast. And God provided a Key Leader professor who launched a new ministry at East Carolina University.

On the home front, Dorenda and I are thankful for how our kids are "adulting". Blake loves taking international students out to eat and to talk about Jesus through Bridges International. Micah finds software engineering so natural that he helps his classmates write code at UNC Wilmington. Hannah is pursuing her Paramedic Certification and already has exciting experiences with 9-1-1 calls (too scary for Dorenda and me!). And our youngest, LeAnne, is thriving in Culinary Arts at our community college and already impresses us with her cooking. We're so proud of each of them.

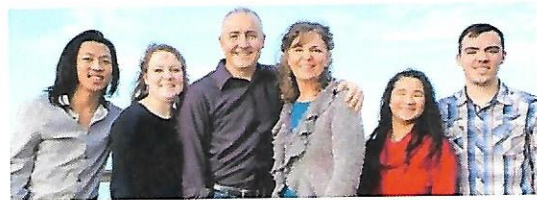

We are incredibly grateful to you who have supported us financially over the years. Your generosity has increased our scope to share Jesus with professors on new college campuses. As we look toward the new year, we're asking God to raise $30,000 to build new ministries of winning, building and sending professors at schools like UNC Greensboro, University of South Florida, and Coastal Carolina University.

Would you prayerfully consider giving a tax-deductible gift toward this need? We understand if you cannot. But if yes, you can send a check made to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope or give online at www.give.cru.org/0424344.

Psalm 145:4 says, "One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts." Thank you for reaching professors and future generations of college students for Christ.

Merry Christmas to you and your family.
